ZAPATEROS / SHOERACKS

UNIQUE

by franco furniture

White's Tiger is considered a mythological creature. The probability that it will be born naturally is one in a million. That makes him unique in the world.

Nowadays, there are only 200 specimen located between southeastern Asia and central/southern India.

Japanese mythology calls him BYAKKO, one of the four divine monsters; which each represent a cardinal point, corresponding to the white tiger the west
His fur symbolizes purity, strength and transparency.

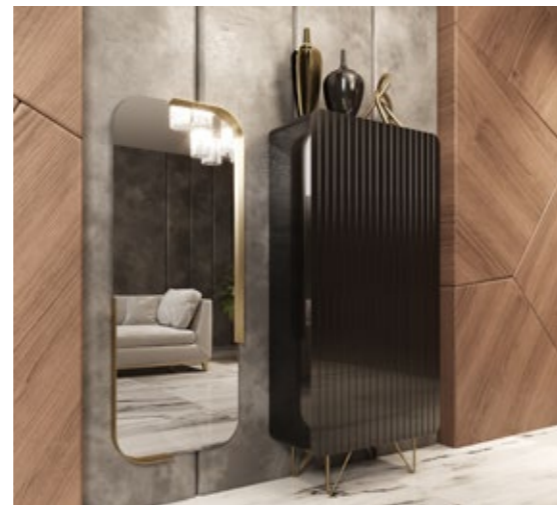

That is Franco Furniture's shoeracks new line.
For the first time in our history, we have launched to the market an shoeracks' special edition what does it mean a change of period in our firm.

Elegance, refinement and style that flood every detail.
